I rekindled on the memories that I shared with Sherryle. It seems as if it was just yesterday we were holding up another close friend who was experiencing a tradegy 9 yrs ago as well as sitting in class at Coker College. But through it all and by God's grace, we made it. Casey, although I did not get a chance to meet you, you were the life of Sherryle. I will forever hold a special place in my heart for Sherryle. Just remember weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning. Sherryle and Morgan are sitting high and looking low for one day we shall meet them. May God strengthen you, the Terry Family, and the Alford Family during this difficult time. With Unconditional Love, Cardelia "Tiny" Brewer##imported-begin##Cardelia Brewer##imported-end##

Sherryle and I were not considered as high school friends, but developed a friendship in later years and I am so grateful to have had that opportunity. We often don't know why people come in and out of our lives, but for whatever reason – embrace the friendship, share the love and continue to pass it on. My thoughts and prayers go out to you as her family and know that her presence was not in vain but an inspiration to those who knew and loved her.##imported-begin##Neton Medlock & Family##imported-end##

Sherryle,

I will miss you my friend. All I can remember is your sweet smiling face at 9 years old with those long ponytails. We played and played on the playground for what seemed like hours - time stood still. Oh, how I wish for those yester-years of laughter & being carefree. And, you were my friend when no one wanted to be my friend. I thank you. Though life and distance has separated us, nothing separates my love for you and a friendship that is timeless. I will see you and little Morgan in the Kingdom. May God keep you Casey and Cierra. I pray God's peace and comfort over the both of you and to all who loved Sherryle...

I never thought I'd be having to visit this site and sign a guestbook any time soon...where do I start? First off, I am so sorry to hear of Sherryle's passing. I didn't know her that well but knew that she was the apple of her families and Casey's eyes. She always seemed like a really nice person who was always real and very humble. I know that she is in a better place and not in any pain. She is looiking down on us and hoping her family and people she knew continue to make her proud. Her presence will not be forgotten any time soon and nor will her spirit. Sherryle, you were always a sweet person and Casey spoke of you with love. I hope and know that you will continue to watch over him, and your family. I know your family and you will be in my daily thoughts, prayers and memories##imported-begin##Emily Sanderlin##imported-end##

Casey, Keeley, & Bethany,
I don't even know how to begin to express my sorrow for your losses. I know no words will ever ease your pain. I pray that you allow the Lord to help ease your sorrow and pain. I will be praying daily for all of you and all of Mrs. Terry's family. I met her once at Wal-Mart with you Casey and she seemed like such a lovely lady. I am sure that Heaven is rejoicing over these two beautiful additions. If there is anything at all that I can do please don't hesitate to call. God bless you all!##imported-begin##Alicia Wallace Steen##imported-end##

This your nana Peaches, your memory will never go in vain you were just like a daughter to me and sister to my children. You will always have a place in our hearts, I just wish I could have been a better angel to you and go back in time but my tears can not bring you back. Our father in heaven is watching over you in his care and I shall see you in the other side. I didnt get to meet your husband but I know he love you. Im so happy that you were in holy matrimony with him. From Nana Peaches
