She is survived by her son, Randy (Pat) King of Cheraw, SC; sisters, Lina Ruth Gardner of Florence, SC, Mary Lee Byrd of Darlington, SC; brother, Jennings (Judy) Lyles of Hartsville, SC; grandchildren, Amy King (Fred) Skinner, Jamie King, Toby King, Kelli (Keith) Hodges, Lisa (Kevin) Tucker, all of Hartsville, SC, Anna (Colin) Stone of Florence, SC, Rebekah (Brian) Ratliff of Chesterfield, SC; 11 great-grandchildren, and seven great-great-grandchildren.

Mrs. King was preceded in death by her husband John Manning King, Sr.; one son, John Manning "Johnny" King, Jr., one daughter, Cookie Johnson, one brother, Willie Jay "Bill" Lyles, and one sister, Kate Lyles Teal.

“ I'm sorry to hear of Aunt Ruby passing. I have so many wonderful memories at Grandma's house in Bethune on Sunday afternoons when we all would gather. Mama and Ruby sang "You are my sunshine" one Sunday. It was awesome. Ruby sang harmony and the look on Mama's face was priceless. It was beautiful but so unexpected. She was a great funny lady and will be missed

“ I always enjoyed talking with Miss Ruby at Walmart in the material section. She was always so spry and talkative. Then she retired. Recently, I had the privilege of seeing her at Morrell's when she came to our Sunday School Class on Sunday Mornings. Now, this COVID-19 virus has kept us apart for many weeks. I pray that each of you, her family, know that she loved you. May you find peace and know that you are in my prayers.

“ I'm saddened to learn that my Aunt Ruby has passed! I think of the summers when I was a child & would spend a couple of weeks with Cookie. I would carry my bike so we could ride all over McBee & to the skating rink! I looked forward to breakfast every morning, I must say my aunt Ruby really knew how to cook the creamiest grits! After breakfast we would work in her flower beds! She dearly loved her flowers! Didn't matter what kind they were as long as it bloomed & had a sweet fragrance! I hope now that she has passed and in the Lord's presence that she can be the head caretaker of all God's flowers in heaven! She had a green thumb for sure! We had great family times on Sundays when we all gathered at my grandma's house! I can see her laughing now, as we would laugh at anything!! Easter was always fun at aunt Ruby's house, she would tell me where the eggs were hid! My prayers go out to Randy, Amy, Toby, Jamie, Lisa & Kelly! Stay strong for each other & know that aunt Ruby loved each of y'all deeply! How do I know that? Because she was always was talking about you! That's what mother's & grandmother's do best! Rest in peace aunt Ruby! Hope when I get to heaven I can help you in the flower gardens once again!
