“ Rickey, Mary, Jamie, Kelley, Lance and Billy, Carolyn, Jr., Lisa and Stephen, Our E-mail may be late, but our prayers and thoughts have been with all of you. Aunt Add was a wonderful person. She is greatly missed. Her smile and laughter was contagious. We enjoyed many days sitting on the steps and talking. Moma and Daddy missed her presence. Our love will always be for you all. Aunt Add will always be in our heart. May God continue to strengthen and comfort each of you daily. We must hold on to our faith and to our love for one another. God bless all of you. “ To the family of Mrs. Funderburk
I am so sorry for your loss. Although you don't know me i wanted to write you and give you some encouragement during this tough time. Personally the account of Lazarus has always been comforting to me. Jesus dear friend died and he experienced much grief (John 11:33,35) He also showed great compassion and care for the family. You can be sure he feels the same way for you. Jesus was moved to resurrect Lazarus from the dead. (Verse 43, 44) Soon Jesus will perform a worldwide resurrection in which you will be able to see Addie again in good health. (John 5:28,29) Please be assured you are in my thoughts.###imported-begin###Ms. Smith###imported-end##

“ Grandma,
How beautiful your funeral was today, if you can call a funeral beautiful. Steven did a wonderful job with the service, he had you down pat. Everything he said described you perfectly... from how your grandchildren did no wrong, no matter what circumstance, to how you felt like anyone that walked into your kitchen needed to eat some type of meal that you had cooked for that day. The music that was played sounded like the music that you and grandpa would play at Christmas time when we would gather at your house. How time has passed from when I was such a small child wanting to go and be with you everyday, until I had my first child and you told me all the joys of motherhood. I will miss you dearly and all of the wonderful conversations that we would sit and have. You always had the perfect answer to any situation..it might not have been what I would like to hear but it was always what should have been. You will forever be with me. I will hold you close to my heart and keep you near at all times. I know now that you are with our heavenly father and hurt no more, but I still wish that you were here with me... I do not mourn for you because I know that you hurt no longer, I mourn for me and pray that God will give me strength to get through this difficult time. Until we meet again, I LOVE YOU.....
