She welcomed us as old friends would. The community has lost a fine merchant as well as a revered friend. We are sorry for the loss of such a sweet spirited person. She ALWAYS had a smile for every person that she met. I last saw her several months ago at "her" store that she loved so. There was that same smile, esp. when she spoke of the grand children and of YOU, George. She loved you so much. If you need anything at all, Bob and I are here for you.
