“ Hi Sheila, I am not sure if you remember me. We went to High School together. My uncle(John Newsome) passed and as I was looking at his visitations, I decided to check all of the others. I recognized your name and wanted you to know how sorry I am that your son passed. I am sure that you will miss him but remember that you will be with him again one day. My father passed away 13 years ago and I still miss him very much. I have so many good memories and that is what I have to hold on to. You do the same and in time it will get easier. God will help you and your family get through this rough time.##imported-begin##Joy Newsome Owens##imported-end##

“ Corey & Family,

I am very sorry to hear of Adrian passing. I knew Adrian a couple of years ago but I had not seen him in a while. Corey if there is ever anything you need, don't hesitate. Remember to always keep your memories close they will help you through this more than you know. I know right now it's a fog & it will be for a while, but don't be afraid to talk about him and to share his life with others. It will help keep him close. He may be gone from your sight, but he will never be gone from your heart or your memories. Those things can never be taken away. Please know that I have you and your family in my thoughts and prayers.

“ To the family of Adrian Smith;
I will be praying for you and know that God is there with His hand stretched out to you. God will comfort and hear your needs. I knew Adrian from the years I worked with the City of Hartsville. I was involved with several school events and knew Adrian from there as well. I've been retired from the police department almost two years. I can recall one of the times that Adrian I talked it was a good talk. It was more of a mother to son talk. I shared with Adrian that I had a son his age son who lived in Texas how I missed him, Adrian replied without hesitation the words that I could adopt him. I know you are hurting and I also know that Adrian loved his family. Sometime those we do not know as well like myself being in the position of an officer are those who our children do talk with and it was a good talk. Keep your greatest memories of Adrian near to your heart because that is where you will find your comfort. Not only I but our entire church will be praying for you. May God Bless you all.
From a friend of Adrian that you may have never met but I cared about our young people and always enjoyed working with and getting to know them and I am glad I was given the opportunity to become a friend to Adrian.

“ Your are in my thoughts and prayers as you try to come to terms with this great tragedy and loss. It will be a longg, hard and uncomfortable road ahead. Remember your love for him and his love for each of you. The deeper the connection the more intense the pain of separation. As with our loss of Caroline, when the reality sets in you may find great comfort in your memories, photos and the fact that you had him the much too short amount of time you did. I believe Caroline is on the welcoming committee in heaven as she never met a stranger while here on this earth and she will look out for him in his new home in our Fathers house. Your pain now is so fresh, so raw, so horrible that you must feel you cannot bear it. Give yourself time to grieve in whatever way works for you individually. You each had a unique relationship with Adrian. Draw strength from one another and know that I will do anything I can to help you on your journey. With much love, Rebecca##imported-begin##Rebecca Skinner-Fulmer##imported-end##
