

Mr. Alexander Wayne Boggs

November 3, 2006 - September 6, 2018

Funeral services for Mr. Alexander Wayne "Alex" Boggs, 11, will be held at 6 o'clock pm on Monday, September 10, 2017, at St. Andrew Church of God. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service. A private burial will be held at Florence National Cemetery. Hancock-Elmore-Hill Funeral Home is serving the family.

Alex was a star student in school, who played soccer and baseball. He was a military dependent who traveled the world with his mother. He loved dinosaurs, Legos, Disney Movies, and all types of sports. He admired superheroes, singing, and dancing, and he loved food - especially Candy Corns!

Alex lit up the room when he would come in. He introduced himself and shook your hand whether he knew you or not. He was polite and respectful; however, he was 100% boy! He loved to get dirty and play. Alex loved his church and Bible school. His family could not be more proud to have had this true gift of a child in our lives. He was an inspiration to all of us, a beacon of hope, a fighter.

Alex was a Superhero.

He is survived by his mother Michelle Renee Atherton, brother, Vincent Chase

Roscher; sister, Madison Glen Rabil; grandparents, Marsha Susan Atherton, Robert Glenn Atherton, Rick Boggs, Lynn Boggs; great-grandparents, Francis Atherton, Donald Boggs, Debbie Boggs; aunts and uncles, Mary Patti Stokes, Jessica Darby Boggs, Jamesen Grace Boggs, Robert Jason Atherton, and Heather Atherton.
