“ I just learned of Alice's passing, and so wish I had known sooner. My first memories are of family gatherings at my Grandpa Troy Weaver's on Coker Avenue. We had some wonderful times then. I will have to look for some of the old family pictures of those reunions and get copies made for you. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers!

“ Robin, Jed, Rusty and all other members of this sweet family - My heart is heavy tonight. I share your sorrow and pain. Alice & I often told people that I was her "adopted" daughter. In our hearts, she was indeed like a Mother to me. I loved her from the first time we met - and your Dad, also. I don't have the words to express just how much she meant to me. We spent many, many hours talking at her house on Home Avenue and many, many more on the telephone! When I needed advice, a shoulder to cry on, someone to pray with me, it was to Alice I turned. She never disappointed me. She was always there, didn't matter what time of the day or night I needed her. My sons thought she WAS their grand-mother. They loved her and Ed and they, in turn, loved them. It broke my heart to visit her after she moved to Florence. She cried each time I started to leave and would beg me to bring her home. How I wish I could have granted her wish. Yes, my heart is heavy, but on the other hand, my heart is singing because I know WHERE Alice is - with her Savior whom she loved and all her family who were waiting "just inside the Eastern Gate" for her. I treasure the special items she gave to me over the years. But much more than the "things," I treasure the memory of the time we spent together. I will miss her always. Love & prayers to all of you.

Robin, I am sorry for the loss of your precious mom. She was always so kind to our family when we lived on Ousleydale Road when I was a child. I always loved going to your house on Halloween-your mom always had candy apples which were so yummy. Love to you and your family. Carol Elmore Bryant
