“ Its been over a year since we lost NONNIE but it seems like only yesterday. It is steel so very hard to go over to her house and not have her waiting for us at the door with a big hug and her saying "hey darling". Just wanted everyone to know how very much she was loved and steel is and always will be. Here's to the YELLOW ROSE OF TEXAS we miss you!!!!!!!!!!##imported-begin##John & Becky Bryan##imported-end##

“ *I might not have been around my Nonnie a whole lot during my life, but I love her still the same. The few visits that we did have in the last 10 years I will never forget. I had the privilege to sing with my Nonnie at her church several years ago during a visit. During another visit she took my girls and myself to pick strawberries. These are my most fondest memories of her. I only have a few but I cherish them all. I miss her greatly. I love you as big as Texas Nonnie.
