“ Mom,

*What does it mean to have a mom that loves you unconditionally?
That cares for you from birth until she died.*

My mom grew up during the depression years. One of seven in a poor family; but a loving family. I never knew my grandparents but mom always talked about them with great joy. They instilled a caring and loving tradition that my mom continued until she died.

She was raised in a Christian family and made sure we were as well. I remember always going to church. My mom's devotion to God, the church and her family molded her life into being a great woman.

She was absolutely devoted to my dad in making sure he was taken care of. I can't say that I ever remember them having issues, but like all marriages I am sure they did, but it was never in front of me.

After dad's death mom came to live with us for a while and eventually into a nursing home because of her dementia. Even in the nursing home, people always were drawn to mom because of her gentle spirit. They could see that she cared and loved everyone. She always had a smile on her face and she was always singing songs about Jesus.

My mom was truly one of the best at showing love for her children and her husband. Always putting them first, always working hard. I know without a doubt that she is now with Jesus and all her loved ones. Mom, I will miss you forever!

Love Buddy

Buddy, I absolutely agree with you. Your mom was a very loving and sweet woman. Marlene and I were the same age and your dad did some work for my dad also. Even after I moved to KS in '68 we still communicated with Christmas cards and letters for many years. I know she is certainly singing in Heaven.

“ Aunt Aline loved the Lord with all her heart and I have no doubt she's reached our Savior's feet and reunited with Uncle Marvin and sweet Marlene. Happy for her but sad for those she's left behind.
