“ Dear Uncle Joe and family: I am sorry to hear about Mrs. Alice. She was a loving and caring person. I remember as a little girl coming to stay with you and going up to that big white house where she and Mr Easterling lived at the time. She is at peace now and heaven is a little richer tonight because she is there.##imported-begin##Randy and Donna Rayfield##imported-end##

“ Dear Vivian, Joe Dan and family,

There are just not words to describe how important Alice was to me growing up. She loved me no matter what and treated me with such love and respect. You were all lucky to have her as a mother and grandmother. The picture of her at the piano is just how I remember her; or cooking in the kitchen to make sure everyone had enough to eat. Thank you for sharing her and I will keep you all in my thoughts. I am sorry I can not be there to see you. Love, Holly##imported-begin##Holly Saleeby Atkins##imported-end##
