“ *Mr. Young, Leslie and BoBo,
We are so sorry for your loss. I remember many days when your mom/grandmother would be walking the neighborhood and would stop by our house and mom's house to share her stories and tell us new things that were going on. I am sure you will miss her as will many. Please let us know if there is anything we can do for you all.

“ Memories abound of our dear Alice. She came into our lives like a ray of sunshine on a cloudy day when we where we didn't want to be.

She was the little Southern lady and her real gentleman, Wesley, who continued to add sunshine to our lives.

Our family was priviledged to be recipents of her beauty, love, charm and friendliness.

Whether she prepared a quick tomato sandwich for my lunch in her back yard on my lunch hour, served on silver, or a formal bridesmaids luncheon for our daughter, it was done with beauty and love.

She was the friend there in our times of need.

The last years were hard as her health deteriorated but we knew she was lovingly cared for.

Losing our dear Alice is hard but we celebrate that our paths led to a wonderful friendship . We have been richly blessed and proud to have shared many of our life's significant moments and thankful she became a part of our lives.

“ Alice was a true friend and great companion when I was in high school. She gave her all. She helped with my wedding reception and the invitations. We had some great times at the lake on our floats and eating watermelon. Will never forget the time where we surprised her with her favorite strawberry cake on her birthday at the lake. She will be truly missed but she will always have a place and memory in my heart.

With much sympathy,

Dante, Wayne, Susan and Amanda Harp

P.S. Let us know what the arrangements will be in Henderson and will try our best to be there.##imported-begin##Dante Harp##imported-end##
