“ I grew up and went to school at Ashwood School. When I was a child I remember going to Miss Aline's store with my parents and grandmother .As children , we loved going there because it meant a COCA COLA and a sweet treat. I was always in awe of the many things she had in her store. We lived across the road from the school house and on rare occasions we could walk to the store with that quarter in our hand. WE WERE RICH or so we thought. The picture is just the way I remember her. Always that sweet smile on her face. Such a loving LADY and she would always remind us to be careful and stay out of the road going home.
