“ *Lavonde and Family,
My deepest sympathy on the home-going of your Mother. She lived here a long time in human terms, and your love for her grew with her years. She was a true Southern lady, with grace and beauty, inside and out. I remember her stopping by to see my parents, just a few years ago. Dad spoke so highly of her and your Dad, and the happy times shared when they were young! You have inherited many of the kind, caring qualities from your Mother. You are in my thoughts and prayers.*

“ I grew up with her and loved her so very much. She was the last person my Daddy spoke to before he passed away. She loved her flowers and yard and hated the stray cats but took care of them anyway. She loved her angels and elephants and her friends. She loved Ralph and always wanted to dance with him. I am so very much going to miss her on this earth but I know that right now she is with Jesus and my parents and dancing all over heaven. All of you are in my prayers. Love you!

“ I am thankful for the long life that my grandmother lived. She was a big inspiration to me and taught me a lot about life. I will never forget our fun times together. I am thankful she lived long enough to see my kids. They used to brighten her day no matter how her day was going. I love you Granny Mobley.
