“ This is so hard from me. I held out hope and prayed that it was not "my Amber", when I heard the name on the news. But I soon found out that it was. She was my son's classmate since the 3rd grade. She then became one of my babies from WHE until HMS. She would come and sit with me at HMS in my office to calm down, when she was having what we lovingly called an "Amber moment". She has left an impact on a lot of lives and she will truly be missed. To her family, there are no words that will ease the hurt you feel but just know that I am lifting you all up in prayer.

Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. John 14:1-3.

To the Brown and Menius Family - I am sending my condolences to you and your family for the loss of Amber. Amber came into my life almost 3 years ago and since that time I have always loved her just as if she was my own child. She has made me so proud of her and I thank God for allowing her to be apart of my life. R.I.P. Amber

I met Amber the first day she enrolled at GSFHS. A bond was formed that day. I grew to love Amber and watched her grow into a beautiful young lady. There were not many days that Amber did not stop by just to say hello or to discuss something that was on her mind. My prayers go out to her family. She was a very special person.

“ Amber was a good friend of mine. We talked for hours before. She loved her daughter and her family so much. We shared clothes, shoes, and memories. She was such a loving and happy person. She helped me get through my pregnancy and offered love, advice, and support. She was so, so beautiful. I lost touch and I hate it knowing that I've lost her now. I don't understand why God took her but I know He has plans for her wonderful family. Amber, I love you and will miss you.

“ Amber Michelle Menius was one of the closest people to me. me n her went through so much together, and now that shes no longer here i wall always and forever have her in my heart. she made me smile when she knew i really needed it, she made me laugh and helped me out when i was going through rough times, she was the first to show me how to be real and keep it that way, i love her beautiful little girl Laken Leigh who i would love to adopt and am willing to take the challange that will bring me to get her. i know Amber is in a much better place now than we all are but i cant help but miss her silly laugh and her funny sweet personality that made her her. I wish we could have spent a little more time that we use to but hopefully one ay i will get to see her again but with amuch happyier and brighter smile, because i know where she is thats all she can do is be happy and know shes safe. i would love to have the opertunity to take care of the most preciouese thing that God gave her and have a little peice of amber in my life that she calls laken leigh menius and treat her like my own but let her know that she had a wonder ful mother and she would want her baby to be safe and happy. i have not yet met her family but i know that laken is well taken care of by ones that she is with. God bless you all. i Hope to get the opertunity to meet the fmily that raised a wonderful best friend and sister i have never had that i will always have a very special place in my heart for.
All of you will be in my prayers.
