

Mr. Andy Simpson Beasley

November 5, 1947 - July 11, 2017

Andy Simpson Beasley, 69 years young, beloved husband, Dad and Pop passed away peacefully and went to be with his Lord and Savior on Tuesday, July 11, 2017. He was in the loving arms of his wife and surrounded by his family. Andy was born in Hartsville, South Carolina, on November 5, 1947, the son of the late John B. (J.B.) and Vivian Kea Beasley. He bravely battled ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) since 2012.

Andy served in the U.S. Army and the Army National Guard. He retired from Millwright Shop at Sonoco Products Company and was a member of the Sonoco Old Timers Club. He was a member of St. Luke United Methodist Church for more than 20 years. Andy was an avid sports fan, supporting The University of South Carolina Fighting Gamecocks; NASCAR, especially the entire Earnhardt family of drivers and the Dallas Cowboys and many more.

Before his illness, Andy and Joyce split their time between Hartsville and Garden City, S.C. They actually lived there full time for nearly two years. Andy loved the beach life, the fresh air and spending time with his wife and many friends. He enjoyed music, good western movies and traveling. During the time of his battle with ALS, Andy was an inspiration to everyone he came into contact with. Andy had a big heart and wanted to make a difference in the lives of those less fortunate. Because he was unable to offer help, he supported many local organizations to help them make a difference.

Andy is survived by his loving wife of nearly 45 years, Joyce Smith Beasley. daughter Jennifer B. Marchant of Columbia and a son Jason Boyd Beasley of Hartsville. His precious granddaughters, Vivian Marchant of Columbia, Stella and Natalie Beasley of Hartsville. Step grandsons, Michael Marchant of Columbia and Johnathan Marchant of Raleigh, N.C. A sister, Melanie B. Easterling of Lydia who was dedicated to helping him through his illness. His sisters-in-law, Melinda Smith Byrd and husband Mike of Hartsville, and Cheryl Smith of The Hague, Netherlands, Holland. A brother-in-law, Loraine Smith and wife Wanda of Coward. His nephews, with whom he shared a special bond, Clark Easterling of Charlotte, N.C., Adrian Smith of Effingham, Justin Byrd and Raleigh Smith of Hartsville. His nieces, Andrea Hanna of Effingham and Beth Francis of Chesterfield. Special extended family Lee Stacy, Maureen Murphy, Sandy Wilcox, Stephanie Wilcox Urquhardt, Tonya Book and Geneva Brown. "The Cats" Emme, Elli and Ollie. Along with his parents, Andy was preceded in death by his sister Brenda, in-laws Melvin and Lula Mae Smith and his loving and faithful companion, his black lab named BlackJack.

A memorial service will be held at 3 PM Sunday, July 16, 2017 at St. Luke United Methodist Church, 302 Dunlap Drive, Hartsville, SC with the Rev. Carl Hunsucker officiating. The family will receive friends at the church at 2 PM, one hour prior to the service.

A heartfelt thanks to all members of the community and special friends for your support during Andy's struggle with ALS. The family would like to extend a special "Thank You" to the ALS Clinics at Duke Hospital and Ralph H. Johnson VA Center, as well as the staff with Embrace Hospice for their loving and tender care.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Duke ALS Clinic Research Program, Attn: Holli Gall, 710 W. Main St., Suite 200, Durham, NC 27701 919-

385-2406 or St. Luke UMC Choir or Children's Program, 302 Dunlap Dr.,
Hartsville, SC 29550.

“ Joyce, I remember Andy as great guy and the guy voted as the "Best Looking" in his senior class. He was the same guy I saw at the Prestwood Easter Egg Hunt. We were talked of old friends and were enjoying our grandchildren. Although, we hadn't seen each other in a while, we talked as though no time had pass between the last meeting. He was in such a great mood...you would never know he was sick except for the wheelchair. Just knowing he is whole again...and in God loving arms is a great comfort. It's always so sad when we lose a loved one, but we have all the wonderful memories which will keep them alive in our hearts, and remembering that great guy with that smiling handsome face. Thinking of you with love and admiration.

Aunt Joyce...the moment I was introduced to "Uncle Andy" many years ago, I felt welcomed into the family. He always made me feel comfortable and made sure I had somebody to talk to at family gatherings if I was being too quiet. He could make me laugh with just a few words. Most of all, you could see just how genuine he was and how big his heart was from just spending a few minutes with him. I feel like he made me a better person just because I was able to meet him and get to know him. Uncle Andy won't be forgotten and he will always be in the hearts of those who were privileged enough to know him. I love and miss all of you and y'all are in my thoughts and prayers.

He and Andy were good buddies and I always enjoyed his visits, After daddy passed away, Andy would always blow the horn when he went by the house just like he did when daddy was alive. This was such an encouragement to me and my sisters. We all have such fond memories of Andy. His suffering is over now and he is at peace. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you and we will keep you in our prayers.*

“ Joyce,
We are so sorry to hear about Andy. He fought a good fight and had such a good attitude throughout his illness. Every time I would feel bad I would think of him and my problems didn't seem as big. I know he is walking and feeling no pain now. know that you, Jennifer and Jason are in our prayers. Love!

“ Joyce, I had the pleasure of knowing Andy when I worked at Heritage. He always had a smile and was such a sweet man. We would always talk about his dog's and you could see the love he had for them. May God give you peace knowing that Andy fought a good fight and comfort for you in the days ahead. Much love, Lori Douglas
