“ Dawn touched my life and reminded me to always find the good in people. She had such a servant heart and was a true friend. Her passion for being Sarah Grace's mama was so inspiring. We have lost such a special person, but I'm so thankful that she is healed.

“ I offer my prayers for the family during this difficult times. Dawn was a remarkable lady and as strong as any that has ever lived! We shared June 27 as our birthday and were only born a few minutes apart. You always said that was why we were such good friends. When I survey the people I have called “friends,” you have from day one, topped the list. You were the truest of the true!

The world is a little darker without you in it. Rest well dear friend.

*I have been friends with Dawn since we were four years old. I can't think of any important milestone that we didn't share together. I have always admired her strength and determination and she always did it with grace. I wish I could have done more for her...she deserved so much that so many of us take for granted.
