“ Angela was precious to Her Granddaddy and Martha. When Adger and my Aunt Martha married, our family grew - and Aunt Martha loved it. She loved each of one her new grandchildren - and Angie was so special. I bet there is a celebration in heaven - welcoming Angie home. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. "Pete" and Jane Searcy

“ So glad that I happened to be in Walmart that day and finally got to meet Angie. She embraced me as if she'd known me all of her life. The warmth of that memory forever lives with me. Please remember that earth has no sorrows that heaven cannot heal. Much love. Lil Blakney

“ In many ways, I would say Angie reminded me of an Angel in this life. It was the simple things that made her smile. Just a ride to WalMart and anyone who spoke she wanted to give a hug. One of her caretakers said she had been taking care of her 14 years and she always loved unconditionally. Despite what some may call obstacles, she had a closer bond with her sister Pam than most siblings ever have. When I first met Pam many, many years ago and over time hearing about their outings together for fun, I remember saying "Angie is so lucky to have you" and Pam quickly said "I am the lucky one. She's my sister."

What a beautiful family we could all learn so much from. Our prayers and thoughts are with them. Love, Bruce, Marissa & Mattie Grace Walters
