

Mrs. Angela Kay McManus Atkinson

December 10, 1971 - September 11, 2022

On Sunday, September 11th, 2022, Angela Kay McManus Atkinson passed away at the age of 50. Angela was born on December 10th, 1971. She grew up in Hartsville, South Carolina and was a faithful member of Middendorf Baptist Church. She was employed by the United States Postal Service for 24 years and cherished every interaction with those on her route. She served as the McBee High School Varsity Cheerleading Coach for many years inspiring and encouraging those she coached, even after their graduation.

Angela was a loving mother, daughter, granny, sister, and friend. She was an avid Clemson Tigers fan who loved adventures, traveling the world, fishing, and most importantly, talking on her phone.

She held a special place in her heart for caring for children with special needs and made it her life's mission to show love to everyone around her. It is with this special heart that she made the decision to donate her organs to save and improve the lives of others, before spending her eternal life with her grandchild, mother, and sister in heaven.

Angela is survived by her daughters, Danielle Atkinson Johnson (Brandon) and Carol Atkinson Tarte (Bradley); father, William Kerry McManus; brother, William McManus Jr.; granddaughter, Harley Quinn Tarte; bonus grandson, Jasper Johnson; and her little doggie, Pearl.

Angela was preceded in death by her mother, Gwendolyn Hoffman McManus; her sister, Greta McManus; her grandfather and grandmother, Carroll James Sr. and Mary Bethune Hoffman; and grandfather and grandmother, William Clyde and Nezzie McCarty McManus.

A celebration of life will be held at 5pm on Friday, September 16th, 2022, at Middendorf Baptist Church. Rev. Jerry McManus will officiate her ceremony with the support of Rev. Don Rhyne and Pastor Beau Boyle. Burial will follow in the church cemetery. A visitation will be held from 5pm - 7pm on Thursday, September 15th, 2022, at Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home.

Memorials may be made in her honor to the Miracle League of Florence County, 710 S Irby St., Florence, SC 29501.
