

Mrs. Ann Marie Helfrich England

March 3, 1956 - December 8, 2011

Funeral services for Ann Helfrich England, 55, will be held at 5:00 p.m. Sunday, December 11, 2011 at the Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home Chapel. The family will receive friends following the service. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Second Chance Animal Rescue, 4527 Belmont Circle, Florence, SC 29501.

Mrs. England died Thursday, December 8, 2011. Born in Kenmore, NY, she was a daughter of the late Joseph and Helen Kozicki Helfrich. She was a 1974 graduate of Sayre High School, Sayre, PA and was employed with Sonoco Products Company for over 22 years. Her spare time was dedicated to Second Chance Animal Rescue. She was a caring and loving wife who will be greatly missed. She was also an active amateur radio operator (N2CFN). Surviving are her husband, Craig England; sisters, Terese (Ed) Zulkoski of Mountain Top, PA, Mary Beth Waite of West Palm Beach, FL; brother, Michael (Cynthia) Helfrich of Salt Point, NY; nieces and nephews.

“ I met Annie when she was just a young girl out of high school. We worked together and had a friendship that led us on a few adventures and a lot of good times in her hometown. She was the best. She added such warmth and fun to the lives she touched. I am happy to have shared so many great memories with a person as special as Ann. My family and I feel blessed to have known her. We loved her and we will miss her.

“ Ann was such a joy and ALWAYS had a twinkle in her eyes! She had an wonderful sense of humor and was such a loving, caring person. I have always missed our time together as a founding member of the Pee Dee Pride's hockey team's booster club-all the planning, games, trips and fellowship. I looked forward to each get-together. Ann will be greatly missed!
