

Mrs. Ann Moore Wrolsen

October 3, 1924 - April 13, 2014

Mrs. Ann Moore Wrolsen, 89, died peacefully on Sunday, April 13, 2014. A family celebration of her life will be held at 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, April 20, 2014 at Hebron United Methodist Church, McBee, SC. The Rev. Gary Compton will officiate the service.

Mrs. Wrolsen, widow of Robert C. Wrolsen, was born in Corinth, MS, a daughter of the late Clyde and Bannie Moore.

She was a member of Hebron United Methodist Church, McBee, SC and was a true angel on earth. Ann's strong passion for Christ and family led her to have a purposeful and inspiring eighty-nine year life journey on this earth. Her hobbies consisted of reading, puzzles, gardening, animals, and just plain simple conversation.

Known as Gram to her grandchildren and Grammie to her great grandchildren, she passed down love, knowledge, patience, and understanding.

Donations to charity, an honest life style, and devotion to God and family confirm her heart of gold.

Ann moved to South Carolina in 2007 from New York to be with her daughter. She was born a southern girl in Mississippi and passed as a southern lady in South Carolina! We miss you dearly.

"Love is not about what we do, but who we are."

Surviving are her daughter, Catherine (Frank) Fedorchuk of Hartsville, SC; grandchildren, Gregory Frantz, Jason Frantz, Robert C. Wrolsen, III, Jennifer

Wrolsen; great grandchildren, Aiden Frantz, Morgan Frantz, Madison Frantz, Kori Frantz.

“ When mom and I moved some family to SC from NY, we flew up and drove their vehicle back with 2 cats, 2 rats, 2 kids and 2 old ladies. We made it without any trouble, but we had a hard time finding a motel room that would accommodate the 2 rats. Haven't been back to NY since. Soon family, those that want to make one last trip, will take mom's ashes back to be laid to rest with dad and 2 brothers. I'm the last of the original Wrolsen family. I miss you all!!!!

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. Death is not the end. The Bible promises a resurrection. John 5:28,29 reads; "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming when all that are in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."
