“ Tommy and family,

I was so sorry to hear about the passing of your wife, I didn't know her but I do know you and your son. Both of you are special people and therefore I am certain that Anne was cut from the same fabric.

Tommy, I know some of what you are feeling right now, as you know I to lost the love of my life several years ago. I attended a grief share ministry here in Hartsville to help me through the pain of that loss, it helped. They shared with me these words that I want to now pass on to you and your family.

*"Grief never ends...but it changes.
Its a passage, not a place to stay.
Grief is not a sign of weakness, nor a lack of faith...It is the price of love."*

Grief shared Tommy is truly, grief lessened on all involved. I will continually pray for you and your family to work through this trying time in your lives. "God is still able."

I love you my brother in Christ,

“ I’m saddened by Anne’s death. During a very dark time in my life, as I struggled with substance abuse, Anne was a great encouraging force in my life when so many ran the other way. Mine was a public mess for a long time.

Anne lived her life for Jesus, and it showed in all she did. She did not owe me a single thing, yet there she was, always with an encouraging and consistent message for me of hope and redemption. Whether it was a card, a phone call, or a text message, she never stopped caring about me. After things got better for me, she never stopped loving me. She was as real as the sunshine.

Many people loved her more, and she had much better fiends than me, but Anne Goodson cared about Andy Williams, and Andy Williams cared about Anne Goodson. She had my back, I promise you that.

The last time I physically saw Anne, though we talked a few times by phone this year, was late last year at the Hartsville Country Club after church at Sunday lunch. She had her grandchildren, and it was just the three of them. She was happy. Very happy. We talked a minute and exchanged hugs. She said she was proud of what God had done for me. That meant a lot to me.

She was a far better friend to me, than I was to her. That’s a fact.

Peace to Tommy, Austin, and Tom, and the rest of the family.
