“ She is now not suffering at all. She has no worries of bills, gas prices, people gossiping about her, etc. We should all be jealous and that is probably what she is saying now. She is preparing a place for us when we go to join her.
I'm glad I was at the Hospice House when I was b/c Emily and were about to keep Ryan away for the situation when it happened and we were able to allow the family to cope in their own ways.##imported-begin##Angie Bessenger##imported-end##

I was very sorry to hear about your mother's recent passage and know you are heart broken. As long as we have Mama there is some security in our lives. But without her we have to learn how to move ahead. God Bless you all and know you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Pinckney and family, I am keeping you in my thoughts and prayers. It's been a while since I spent much time around you all, but I do have many fond memories. My earliest memory of Ann was when you lived on the pond in Columbia. She was always cleaning and cooking a great meal and welcoming friends and family. At the house near I-20, off 151 bypass, there was always good food and company at Anne and Pinckney's. I am sending you my prayers.##imported-begin##Gail Bowen##imported-end##
