

Anne Tarte Wiesen

Memorial services for Anne Tarte Wiesen, 91, will be held at 4:00 pm Friday, September 17, 2010 in the Chapel of the First Baptist Church of Hartsville. The Rev. Charles Roberts and the Rev. Monell Smith will officiate. The family will receive friends in the Chapel following the service. Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home is serving the family. Memorials may be made to Kalmia Gardens of Coker College, 1624 W. Carolina Ave., Hartsville, SC 29550 or to First Baptist Church, 104 E. Home Ave., Hartsville, SC 29550.

Anne was born in the township of Steer Pen, SC to the late Alva Edison and Louise Sumner Tarte. A long time Hartsville resident, she had been living with her daughter and son-in-law in Sandy Run for the last four years. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Hartsville in which she was baptized, married and served as a church librarian. She graduated from Coker College and received her Masters in Library Science from the University of South Carolina. She worked in the education systems of South Carolina, Maryland, and Ohio as a teacher and librarian. Surviving are her daughters and son-in-laws, Marilee and Kenneth Willis, Sr. of Sandy Run, SC and Nita (Sheli) and Joseph Williams of Orlando, FL; grandchildren and spouses, Kenneth and Sheila Willis, Jr., Bonnie and Brandon Arvay, William and Michelle Willis; great-grandchildren, Katelyn Willis, Tyler Willis, Lauren Willis, and Corbin Willis. The family would especially like to thank the wonderful caregivers with Tri County Hospice of Orangeburg and Daybreak for their loving and professional services.

“ My parents have known your Mom always at First Baptist Church, Thornwell, Hartsville High. When I moved back to SC, I got to know her and your Dad both at church and as neighbors. My Mom Letha Alford Wadsworth died in 1983. I still miss her and want to talk to my Mom. I pray that days of good memories outnumber the days that you want to cry. Your Mom is in Heaven with your Dad. May God bless you and your family, Becky Wadsworth Walker-Durham,NC##imported-begin##Becky Wadsworth Walker##imported-end##
