“ To all the family....
My deepest condolences on your sudden loss of a really lovely lady. I chatted with her a number of times on trips down to Hartsville. Especially delightful was her 70th Birthday celebration at her home attended by so many kind, loving, relatives and friends. I know she was very proud of her extended family on that great day. It was a grand birthday and no-one went away hungry. Always remembered, now in His loving arms forever. God's richest blessings on all of you.
