

Mr. Arnold Bryan Hall

October 14, 1946 - May 18, 2020

Mr. Arnold Bryan Hall, Sr. entered into rest on Monday, May 18, 2020. A private service, led by Pastor Carl Hunsucker, will be held at the St. Luke Memory Garden in Hartsville, SC. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials be made to St. Luke United Methodist Church, 302 Dunlap Drive, Hartsville, SC.

Born in Hartsville, SC, he was the son of the late Luther and Jacqueline Redic Hall. Arnold was married for 54 years to his high school sweetheart, Janet Williams. A graduate of Coker College, he owned Classic Carriers Trucking Company for many years. He was a member of St. Luke Methodist Church, where he previously served on the church's transportation committee and enjoyed performing with the handbell choir. In retirement, Arnold and Janet enjoyed traveling and playing golf.

Arnold is survived by his wife, Janet, of the home; son, Arnold Bryan Hall, Jr. of Atlanta, GA; daughter, Shannon Hall of Charlotte, NC; grandsons, William Hall of Oxford, MS and Matthew Hall of Atlanta, GA; and sister Annette (Claude) Wint of Hartsville.

The family wishes to extend special thanks to the caregivers of Hospice Care of South Carolina.

“ I first met Arnold in the first grade and knew him through high school and we graduated together in '64. I am so thankful of reconnecting with him at the "class of '64" lunches at Pam's. Always had the utmost respect for him, he was a gentleman and very kind.
May God give the family peace.

“ My uncle Arnold was kind and gracious, loved his church (St. Luke UMC of Hartsville), and my voluminous experiences as his nephew for several decades now, are nothing short of exemplary. He was a trusted partner in my dad’s trucking firm for many years. He was a constant cheerleader of mine. I appreciated knowing he was in the world. He raised two wonderful and successful children, a Charlotte lawyer and an ATL business executive. He was a great dad. He was a great uncle. He was a Godly husband. He was a loving grandfather. He was a great servant for Jesus. I can think of no greater compliment to give him, than being a great dad. That’s where I shall leave it. I pray they have golf and handbells in Glory. Love to my aunt Janet Williams Hall, dad’s sister, and beloved former teacher in the Darlington County school district. Love to Bryan and Shannon, my dear cousins. Peace. -~ Andy
