So sorry for your loss, Mrs. Tolson was my 5th grade teacher at Plainview School. One of my memories is that after recess she would let us put our head on the desk while she read to us Charlotte's Web. Loved her as a teacher and she was a great friend and teacher. Love and Prayers for your family.

“ Knew Audrey for a long time. I subbed for her second grade class at Antioch Elementary 35+ years ago before I began teaching full time. We always chatted about school and all that was going on there each time we met around town. She would call me to remind me of the retired teachers luncheon and I always enjoyed seeing her there. Audrey was a lovely lady and will be missed very much. Prayers for her family. Ellen Winburn

“ My heart aches at this news! Mrs. Tolson was just in the off a few weeks back checking on me and seeing how things were going. I was fortunate to have her as my second grade teacher and from that point forward we have kept in touch. She was a wonderful teacher, a dedicated friend and a great lady of faith. I will miss her “checking” up on me at the Historical Commission. I’m honored to have been able to call her a friend.
