“ Mrs. Burr was a kind and special lady. She always greeted me with a smile and "How's your family". Truly, she will be greatly miss by many. Please know my heart is with you as you bare the pain of losing a "loved" one, especially your mother. She will always be with you through the wonderful memories you have, and always share a memory with your loved ones. I tell my grand-daughters memories of DaddyBob, my dad,although they never knew him , and it's just as though he's here.

“ Dear Burr family: So sorry to hear about Barbara Ann's passing. She was one of my sister's best friends in high school. I remember, as a little girl, them getting together and having me tag along. We all grew up at Lakeview Bapt together and have many memories. I was especiallly fond of going to their produce market whenever I was back home in Hartsville. God bless you and conford you in your loss.##imported-begin##Vickie McLean Lide##imported-end##
