Eva, my prayers are with you. I won't begin to say "I know how you feel", as I've never walked in your shoes. I do know that the Spirit does not lay anything on us, that we can not bear. Hopefully, the sweet memories will soon take the place of the pain and you will have only the sweet memories. May the spirit bless you and bring you peace in this time of sorrow. Love to you, Eva and to the family. Lots of love to everyone. ♡♡

“ It seems like yesterday that Dickey, Mary , Michelle, and my sisters Alisha Luther, and Malissa Griggs and I were playing in the yard between our homes . Eva , I don't have children, and cannot imagine losing one. I know that everything is in question right now, why, what, and why, but I have believed through the immense death that we have experienced, love and memories will always be with us. I haven't seen you In years, but love you and your family the same. May you find some comfort soon.
