“ Teressa, Mr. Carter, Gene & Family:
I was so saddened to read of Mrs. Carter's passing. I was in Atlanta having pre-ops and will be leaving Hartsville again in a few hours to return to Northside Hospital in Atlanta for surgery. I wish that I could have been at the visitation and service in person to express my sorrow for your loss. The photograph of Mrs. Carter is so lovely and her smile, like I always remember, so sweet and sincere. She was always so nice to me when I was over at your home, at Thomas Hart functions and all the carpooling to games and field trips. I will remember her fondly. I am still struggling with the loss of my oldest child, my daughter, Caroline Terry, who died August 22nd, 2005. I know that you will have bads days and good days on your journey through grief. Mrs. Carter loved you all so much and was a wonderful example of a dedicated wife and mother. My prayers are with you and may your precious memories bring comfort to you in the days ahead. “ Mr. Carter, Teressa and Gene: My deepest sympathy for your loss. I'm so sorry I missed the funeral. Mrs. Carter was a wonderful person and I'll always have many memories of her. Mr. Carter, I hope you'll find comfort in the many memories of the good times yall had together and knowing she's with the Lord now. Gene, I'll never forget how Mrs. Carter always cooked her world-famous chili for us whenever we headed to the Lake House for the weekend (we still make her recipe). And I'll never forget the many conversations we had with Mrs. Carter on your back porch during basketball breaks. She was a proud mother and never stopped talking about you and Teressa.

Laura, Laurie and Michael send their sympathy as well. Take care and hope to see yall soon - Dane##imported-begin##Dane Outlaw##imported-end##

“ Teressa, Gene and Mr. Carter.....I will always cherish memories of being in your home!! Mr. Carter, you and Mrs. Carter had a way of making Teressa and Gene's friends feel as though your home was their home too. Thanks for putting up with our "all night giggling", our cookie dough fights you may or may NOT have known about and for giving me one of the best friends a person could have in one lifetime!!! KNOW that God comes to you when you need him the most. I heard a new song this Christmas and the words touched my heart so profoundly ... "Lord I want your PRESENCE for Christmas.... of all the gifts I may receive, it's the ONLY ONE I really need! May you each be more overwhelmed by HIS presence than by the pain of your loss. Love you all!! Jeda###imported-begin##Jeda Kelley Brandel###imported-end##
