“ I was her son. We didn't see eye to eye on everything, but she love me, and I loved her. As a child I learned there really are monsters. And mama didn't protect me from the monster. I didn't forgive her for that. I'm sorry. The world is a lesser place without her. I was going to call her on her birthday Saturday. She would have been 75. that's when I found out that she had died months ago. Mama could really make somebody laugh, and she loved laughing. I screwed up and I'm sorry. Too little too late. I love you mama. David.

“ *To the Catoe family we send our deepest sympathy. I had the privilege of going to school with Mark and Lisa (Bethune High School) and my mom Jessie Haggins was good friends with Mr. and Mrs. Catoe. Mrs. Catoe was such a loving person.
