

Mrs. Betty Dixon Reaves

January 18, 1936 - May 22, 2022

Mrs. Betty Dixon Reaves, 86, passed away peacefully on Sunday, May 22, 2022. Mrs. Reaves was born on January 18, 1936, and was the daughter of the late Gladys Dixon Griggs and James Edward Dixon. Mrs. Reaves was preceded in death by her sisters Vidalia Ballard, Elizabeth Timms, Jessie Johnson, and brother, Raymond Dixon.

Left to cherish her memory are sons David Earl Reaves of Effingham, Richard Kent (Ann) Reaves of Hartsville, daughter Teri (Billy Roscoe) Reaves Johnson of Cheraw, and long-time companion Steve Westbrook. She is additionally survived by her five grandchildren: Katherine Reaves, David Aaron (Sarah) Reaves, Meredith Reaves, Matthew (Laura Scott) Reaves, and Mary (Rebecca Atkinson) Reaves, and many beloved nieces and nephews.

Though Betty spent her early life in Hartsville, she and Steve spent many years living, traveling, and working throughout the Southeast prior to settling back home permanently. Mrs. Reaves retired from the cafeteria services organization at H.B. Robinson Nuclear Plant in Hartsville in 2011. She was an avid card player and taught her grandchildren to play gin rummy, spades, and many other card games during summer vacations and enjoyed many nights playing cards and spending time with her friends. Betty was also an excellent cook; her family requested her homemade biscuits and chocolate crème pie at every family gathering. Her family will hold her memory close to their hearts.

A private memorial service is planned for the family. In lieu of flowers, remembrances may be made in her honor to the Trent Hill Center for Children and Families: 522 West BoBo Newsome Highway, Hartsville, SC 29550, or to the American Diabetes Association, or to a charity of your choosing. The Directors of Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home & Crematory are caring for the family.

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. Betty and I worked together 50 some years ago at Hanes Hosiery. I didn't get to work there long due to my starting a family. Always remembered Betty and often would wonder where and what she was doing. She's heaven bound....
