“ I wasn't family, but I called her "Aunt Betty Lou" ("Anbelou") like so many others. The reason is because she was a very sweet and kind person. She was also very strong and supporting of her family and others close to her. I wished I'd gotten the chance to see her the last time I was home. She was a blessing here on Earth, and she is missed.

“ Jimmy, Elma and the Entire Winburn/Johnson Family, please know that all of you are in our thoughts and prayers during this most difficult time. Ms. Betty Lou was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother and friend to all who knew her. She is now in Heaven rejoicing with her Lord and Savior, the one whom she had been longing and serving all these years to see, well she has made it, she is now in the presence of our God. She will be missed and forever loved by all. Much Love in Christ Emmett and Levi Dixon.
