“ To the Family. Our Lord and Savior died so that we can have life and have it in abundance. Please accept the words of Jesus Christ who said that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out" (John 5:28,29). Also, please accept my sincere condolences.

“ It has been many many years since I've spend time with Billie; but the many days and years we did spend were very memorable . We fished, played neiborhood ball, beat up boys. Smoked our first cig drove our first car; together and even had the belt put on our tails; a few times. But as our lives changed and we grew into our different worlds I never forgot our momerories. My child hood is what made me who I am. So thank you Billie for being part of my life; I will pray for you, your family and your friends as they morn your loss. Look down on your family and friends and give us that BILLIE smile.. A Friend forever. God Bless... Your friend Jonna
