“ From Charles: Bill was one of the best guys I’ve ever known, and I’ve lost a dear friend. We made many memories...on the golf course where he was with me when I suffered both heart attacks, and on a Myrtle Beach golf course when a crow dove down and ate our hot dogs. He never said a cross word about anyone. He was a true friend, and I really miss him.

“ Dearest Joyce and Family, Our hearts are broken over the loss of our dear friend Bill. He was truly one of the best and oh how much fun we shared together eating out and spending time on the front porch. Y'all were like family to us and we will truly never forget him. May God grant you peace and comfort during by the coming days. Our love to you!!
