“ *Matthew,
you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. There are times that life seems to be unfair and creates challenges to understand and to accept. To lose those we love will always be one of those challenges. My prayer for you and your family is not to make sense out of the tragedy, but for you and your family to know you are not alone in this journey of grief. Your faith will sustain you and your hope for eternity will assure your peace. Your friends will support you and help you take the next step and turn the page to the next chapter in your life. Life will never be the same and that is part of life experiences. You will never be alone, you will always have memories to give an understanding of the past and comfort in the present and for the future.*
