“ Aunt Bobbie Jean loved me so much and oh how much I loved her. Her and uncle Murdock raised me for a temporary time and I had to sneak and call Aunt Bobbie, (Grandma) so my real grandma Mandy Hicks wouldn't get mad. I have sóóó many good memories. Michael riding me on the pony they bought me, then the horse carriage they bought me next and all the poker games uncle Murdock took me to bc he would never leave me. I was his heart Jessica Lane and myself. They loved like no other and her and uncle Murdock and grandma Mandy are all together now I just hope and pray they will know just how much I miss them and how I would give up everything just to see and talk to them just one more time. Micheal, Matthew and Dustin, I'm so sorry!!!

“ Praying God wraps His loving comforting arms around all of Bobbie Jean's family. Larry & I have so many wonderful memories of Bobbie. She's the only women I've ever watched make a from scratch 12 layer chocolate cake using an iron griddle as her cake pan.... Enjoyed hearing her and her sisters sing in church,... 🙏❤️🙏
