“ Shirley, Jay, Tracy, and Alyson,

We are so sorry for your loss. We remember so well Jay playing ball in our yard as a youngster. We remember Alyson so well and know that she has been faithful coming from Georgia to help her mom and to be with her dad through his illness. We remember Bobby being so courageous in the face of his illness, sitting up on the corner of Holly Drive and waving at folks as they went by....shedding good will. Know that your long time neighbors are thinking of you all and keeping you in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Shirley and family,
I just learned of Bobby's passing. What a remarkable man he was...I can still see him standing at the brick wall at the head of your drive, waving to the passer-byers. That was his way of touching lives, even during his infirmities. And then he was no longer able to do so, but he is surely waving hello today to his greeters in his heavenly home. May God shelter you all with his comfort and love. Shirley, please remember always how much you mean to me and meant to me as the "best" secretary ever!
Much love to you all.###imported-begin###Paula Lyles Murph###imported-end##
