Cody hasn't gone far from you, actually he will forever been in your heart. God gave him to you as a baby and the journey began..the journey continues. Cody journeys on one path, your husband on another and you on your path. I believe God has a way in the end to allow our paths of loved ones to meet together again. So as you journey on what is a different path for you, be reminded of all the love, happy times, funny times together and feel God's arms as He keeps you close on this journey my friend.##imported-begin##Pam Ashwood & Kennedy##imported-end##

“ Dear Ms. Melissa,

Cody was my angel in South Carolina. No matter what situation I was in, I could always count on Cody to protect me. On so many occasions, he acted like an angel protecting over me. He literally was my saving grace living in South Carolina when I knew absolutely no one. He took me in with open and became family to me. Like my mom and dad said, I will always remember the good times, especially Cody taking me four wheeling and getting me all muddy before my flight back to Florida. We almost missed that one, but luckily the flight was delayed! My heart goes out so much to you because I know how much he absolutely loved his mom even though he may have given you some trouble at times. He was a great guy. I can be the first to attest to that. There will never be a time when a Brad Paisley song comes on that I don't think of him. I don't know how many voicemails I used to get on my phone with just those songs playing. They always made me smile :). Mud On The Tires and She's Everything will always have a special place in my heart. I'll also never forget when we went on a run together and you and my mom got so worried because we were gone forever. We just couldn't shut up and stop talking to each other. We also saw-not one, not two- but three shooting stars! I will always remember him as a great person with a beautiful, protecting heart.

With love,

“ Melissa,
You may not remember me but my son is David Dayton. He was heart broken when he told me the bad news. He said he saw him at the Sonic last week and they shared a burger and talked about an hour or so. They shuck hands and said good-bye, not knowing that would be the last time. I only know your heart could not be any heavier, but I pray that God will help you through this time of sorrow. Cody always seem to be such a sweet and kind young man. He will be missed by many. I pray that all these young people will realize that life can come to a stop so unexpected and to treat each day as a precious gift from God.##imported-begin##Lou Ann Dayton##imported-end##

When I took Michaela's call I new something terrible had happened as she was heart broken and crying. She uttered Mom Cody died.... silence. Melissa, I am so grateful that our families had the chance to know each other; we got along wonderful - now our dogs... well they both had egos; but for Cody I will forever remember him taking Michaela on the "four wheel" and Cody was always there as a trusted friend. No Mr Mike loved Cody and enjoyed everytime he was around him; me I just loved him and his sweet presence and protection of my Michaela. Cody will be remembered in our hearts and we lift you in prayer and know that God's love and mercy will carry you... thank you for sharing your precious son with us and our lives. “ To the Norton/Watson Families,

I taught Cody when he was at Emmanuel several years back. He had a beautiful smile and loved it when I would "cut up" and tease with the students. Later, when he was at Bilo he always caught me up on what he was doing. He was so respectful and nice to me. I will always carry a picture of his sweet face in my heart, along with all the students who have crossed my path. You are all in my prayers.

“ When I found out about Cody's passing, I was just in shock. I met Cody at Coker and that's where he became a valued friend of mine. Every time I seen him, he'd always put a smile on my face no matter how bad, or stressful, or irritating a day had been. He did that for everyone he came into contact with. He had a spirit that influenced all that he came into contact with as he was just a down-to-earth kind of guy. He will greatly be missed, and he will never be forgotten. For the family that must live on through this extremely difficult time, I pray for the peace that only God can bestow. May He lead you all through these difficult times to make you a stronger people. I don't know why these things happen, and I know that it hurts tremendously. However, I do know that through Christ, all things are possible (Philippians 4:13) and it is through faith that there is hope (Hebrews 11:1). Even though Cody isn't physically here anymore, his kind and warm spirit still reaches out to those who called him friend and family. This is his legacy, and I can't express how big a blessing he was to me and to all he came into contact with. May God bless you all with love in a mighty way.##imported-begin##Michael Parnell##imported-end##
