

Mrs. Brenda Diane Gainey McWhorter

August 25, 1948 - December 30, 2022

Diane McWhorter, 74, died peacefully at home surrounded by family on Friday, December 30, 2022. Per her request, no viewing or funeral will be held. Come spring, there will be a celebration of life held at her home. She wanted to be cherished with good memories, smiling and rejoicing instead of tears and sadness.

Diane was born in Hartsville, SC to Sebe and Roxie Gainey. She was the only one in her family to graduate high school. She was employed by many sewing factories in her life and her last job was as a guard at the HB Robinson Plant. She was an avid Atlanta Braves fan for 60+ years until Freddie Freeman signed with the LA Dodgers. At the end, she cheered him on as a Dodgers fan. She loved the television shows Supernatural, MASH and almost anything that came on Travel Channel. She loved her family, and sitting in her pajamas drinking coffee. She loved the Lord, with her favorite scripture being Psalms 23. There is not a doubt in our minds that she is with her savior and all her family gone on before in a very happy heavenly reunion.

McWhorter, "Camman" Cameron McWhorter, "Runt" Alex McWhorter, "Little E" Ethan Harm McWhorter, and Walker McWhorter; one brother, Daythurn (Louise) Gainey; three bonus grandchildren, Bryson, Summer and Kolton Graves.

The family would like to extend a special thanks to McLeod Hospice and her nurse Stacy for the excellent care they provided in the last weeks of her life. We appreciate it more than words could say.

She is celebrating in Heaven with her daddy and momma, her three sisters, Mary Yarbrough, Myrtle Branham, and Mazel Atkinson; her three brothers, Myrton Gainey, Ray Gainey and James "Buck" Gainey. And it wouldn't be complete without her best friend, her sister, "Slut" Daphine Gainey.

The Directors of Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home & Crematory are caring for the family.
