

Mrs. Brenda Crockett Porter

June 11, 1940 - March 17, 2026

It is with deep sorrow that Mr. Richard McLean "Dick" Porter, Sr., and his family announce the death of his beloved wife, Mrs. Brenda Crockett Porter, 85.

Mrs. Porter entered into rest on Tuesday, March 17, 2026. The Directors of Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home & Crematory are caring for the family.

A funeral service to honor her life will be held at 1 o'clock on Sunday, March 22, 2026, at First Presbyterian Church, with The Rev. Ashley Cheek officiating. The family will receive friends at a reception immediately following the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in her honor to the Thornwell Home for Children, 302 S. Broad Street, Clinton, SC 29325.

Brenda was born on June 11, 1940, in Pocahontas, VA. She was the daughter of the late Hazel Perry Crockett and the late Eules Blaine Crockett. She graduated from Pocahontas High School in 1957, Lees-McRae Junior College in 1959, and Radford University in 1962. She taught in the Fairfax County School System in Virginia from 1962 until 1966. She married Richard McLean Porter in 1966, and they had three children: Wendy Carole, Richard McLean,

Jr., and Betsy Megan.

She also taught in Elizabethtown, NC, and Forsyth County, NC, before moving to Hartsville in 1969. She worked part-time as the DCE of First Presbyterian Church in Hartsville, SC, from 1972 until 1976. She taught at Hartsville High School from 1982 until 1992. She received her Master's in Education from Francis Marion University in 1984.

In 1995, she and Dick purchased Minnie's Giftique in Hartsville. She has been an active member of First Presbyterian Church since 1969. She served as a Deacon, a member of the choir, a youth leader, a pastor's aid, and went on several mission trips to the Dominican Republic.

Her favorite place to be was Montreat, NC, where she and Dick attended multiple Arts, Recreation, and Worship conferences, Worship and Music conferences, Fall Craft Weeks, and an occasional Youth Conference. It is a place where it is easy to experience God.

She is survived by her loving husband, Richard McLean Porter Sr. of Hartsville, SC; children, Wendy Porter Folsom (Cleve) of Hartsville, SC, Richard McLean Porter, Jr. (Susan) of Greensboro, NC, and Megan Porter Grant (Kevin) of Pawley's Island, SC; grandchildren, Caroline Leigh Porter (Alan), Kramer Cleveland Folsom III, Porter McLean Folsom, Perry Claire Gore, Karenna Katherine Porter, and Richard Carpenter Porter; great grandchildren, Henry Jiahai Porter Peh, and Sohie Jiale Porter Peh.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her sister, Betsy Crockett Mills.

“ Dear Porter Family, I was saddened to hear about Brenda's passing. She was such a fine and caring lady. Some people affect you in their own quiet way and Brenda was such a person. She showed me much how to be effective without drama, with true Christian empathy and humanity. She will be missed greatly.

“ Dick, Wendy, Richard, and Megan, I am at a loss for words and my heart is broken over Brenda's passing. For so many years, especially the Ballentine years, Brenda was a surrogate parent. In the years since, she reached out with countless acts of kindness and generosity to me and my family. I know she will be greatly missed.

“ Mr. And Mrs. Porter accepted me as one of their own while growing up one street over. Mrs. Porter would always point me to the kitchen pantry with a big smile and wink for me to take my regular, almost daily, big spoonful of marshmallow puff and peanut butter. I will always hold her close to my heart with love and admiration.

“ Mrs. Porter was tough... and so kind at the same time. My fondest memory (although not so fond in that moment) was one of her standing in the kitchen, brushing her wet hair.... laughing and enjoying the fact that Wendy and I had done something really stupid and we were in big trouble... she didn't need to fuss at us... for once, our fathers were taking care of that! We deserved every punishment we got! She will be missed dearly! Prayers for Mr. Porter, Wendy, Richard and Megan! Melissa Morris Campanaro
