“ Carolyn was my dearest friend from Danville, Va. and we were roommates at Saint Andrews Presbyterian College. She was the only girl in her class who majored in Advanced Accounting. We remained friends, visiting each other, calling and talking each week. She wrote beautiful letters and left me with memories which I will treasure.

Carolyn and I were friends since High School and we're roommates at St. Andrews. I loved playing Canasta at her home in Danville, VA and listening to her play her baby grand piano. She was very talented in music. In college, she majored in accounting, the only girl in advanced accounting. We had happy and wonderful times together. Betty Hart Siviter.
