“ Nick , Zan, and family, I can remember many of the good times I had as a child. Your mom would come pick me up in Kershaw to visit you all in Bishopville. We would stop in Bethune at the drug store and she would buy ice cream. There are many other wonderful memories I have of her most of all she was a great aunt that I will always remember.

“ I was blessed to have her as my neighbor for a few years before she went to live in a retirement apartment. She held Sarah when she was born and was so sweet to the boys too. She would tell great stories and even showed me her pistol she kept in her glove box. She was pretty proud of that! She was a wonderful lady and I was blessed to have known her. 99 years of a well lived life!!!
