“ My deepest sympathy to the family. I met Cecile while we were both going through chemo last year. We shared our faith in God during those treatments. I was always uplifted to see her bright smile. On the authority of the Bible, Cecile is now in the presence of the Lord. May God hold you in His living arms!

“ In the short time I knew this precious woman, my life was greatly impacted. She showed me what it really meant to praise the Lord despite overwhelming circumstances. In the midst of extreme pain and sickness, she would raise her hands and praise her loving Savior. She has touched my life and will be greatly missed. She showed love at all times and shared Christ with anyone who came in contact with her. Until we meet again, I love you Mrs Cecile; rest for now woman of God.

“ What a sweet and loving woman you were to all that knew and loved you so very much. We will miss you here on earth but we know you are so very happy in that glorious land of our pearly gates of Heaven. Walking the streets of Gold with our almighty God in Heaven. You now have a wonderful and pain free body in Heaven and we know you are looking down from that big blue sky saying dont cry for me for I am free. To the Family, and Friends you left behind know that she is Happy in Heaven and pain free from that miserable disease she dealt with for a very long time. May God give you all the strength to go on and remember all the wonderful times she shared with you and all her friends as well. Rest now for your journey here on earth is done and a New Beginning has begun for you in Heaven. Always will love and remember you my sweet and precious friend. Please know Jessica, Jason, and Leslie that you are in my thoughts and prayers as you go through this today and for the rest of your life as well.

Rest Easy in that Big Blue Sky with Jesus Ms. Cecile. love you miss you as well.
