“ Really missing Celeste this morning (19 January 2015), especially after hearing her music that was just posted on her memorial page on Fb. There are no words to describe the hole that will never be filled when she passed. I know she is in a better place now, but I sure would love to be having a "Bud in a can", as well all know she loved. I miss you and love you sooooo much, Celeste. <3

“ My favorite memory of Celeste? As she was speaking to me outside one sunny day, a large butterfly landed right on her nose. It was just flapping it's wings and looking right at her. Without missing a beat, Celeste crossed her eyes to greet it and said " Well hello..Can I help you ?". It sat there for a good minute before flying away. That butterfly landed on the safest nose in Hartsville that day... I'm so sad that she left us so soon but I'm so thankful that she gave me special moments like that one that will live on forever.

“ My friendship with Celeste spanned the past 35 years. No matter how often or how little we saw each other, we always picked up right where we left off. That was due, in large part, to her ability to put people at ease in any given situation. I don't think anyone will ever have to wonder if Celeste knew the Lord. His grace and love were reflected in her DAILY as she shared the gifts He gave her with us. She awed, touched, inspired and entertained us with her musical talents. And His love was showered down upon us as she listened, loved, laughed, supported, and showed compassion to us as she reached out her heart and hand in friendship. She was, in fact, one of the vessels God created to pour out His spirit to the rest of us. I have no doubt that when He welcomed her home, that God's words to Celeste were, "Well done, thy good and faithful servant." How truly fortunate and blessed we have been that Celeste's journey through life intersected our own. May the good Lord give you the peace and rest you so richly deserve, Celeste. I will miss you and always love you, my dear and precious friend.

To Celeste's Family - I am saddened to hear about Celeste. I have not seen her since our high school years but she was always fun to be around and have as a friend. She was a "hoot". “ It has taken two days for me to collect myself to express my feelings on losing such a wonderful friend as Celeste. We go back many years to her ball playing days at Thomas Hart, and we always seemed to have a knack for showing up just when the other needed help or had a crisis. I could never have repaid the debt I owed her for the help she was to Kim and I during Kim's illness and then passing. She had a way of being able to face issues philosophically and of helping you get a grip on your life. Like many of her family and friends I'm sure, I have a gaping hole in my heart, and I'm not sure it will ever totally heal. I'll save goodbye for her service this afternoon, she would want it that way.

I just heard about Celeste and I am shaken. She was a true friend and we shared a lot of laughs together. She will surely be missed and I am praying for the family as they go through this time of loss. God is the only one that can fill that void and give the comfort and peace you need. It is hard to understand why God takes one so early but he knows best and we have to depend on him for understanding. Chuck, I know this is so hard for you . You and Celeste were so close.
