“ To the family of this little baby. You dont know me and i dont know you. I was just reading the obituaries and saw your sons on the internet. Just wanted to let you know that a stranger is thinking of you in your time of loss. I dont know what happened to this little baby but my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I have two small children 15 months old and a 4 year old and anytime I read an obituary about a small child it makes me very sad. Just wanted to let you know that I am praying for you and your family. Love, Angela Bordeaux###imported-begin##Angela Bordeaux###imported-end##
