“ Jessica, Kevin, Leo and all that loved Charlene and was saddened by her passing. Like the song goes, Charlene was definitely a candle whose light went out before its time. Everytime I hear this song I cry for her. Hold on to her memories. Cherish them forever through each other and the grandchildren. That way she will never be gone. She will live in your heart and mine forever. No one can ever take those precious memories away. She was a "godsent" angel here on earth and has truly earned her wings in heaven.##imported-begin##Elaine Byrd##imported-end##

“ When I think of Aunt Charlene I think of how beautiful, determined, hard-working and strong she was. I also think of what a wonderful mom she was and how much she loved Jess and Kevin. Not only was she a wonderful mom, she was the best aunt ever! Even as a little girl I remember her being so full of life, she loved to laugh and have fun. She would turn the music up loud and me, Shannon and Jess would dance around the house with her. It's those memories and many more that I will always cherish about my precious Aunt. She will truly be missed more than words can say! -- Sharon Haynes###imported-begin###Sharon Haynes###imported-end##

“ Charlene will truly be missed. Death leaves a heartache, no one can heal and Love leaves a memory that no one can steal. Charlene and I were like sisters. She was also my best friend, I feel so lost now. This poem reminds me of her. I would like to share it.

" If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane, I'd walk right up to Heaven and bring you home again." The comfort I get now is knowing that she's with our heavenly Father and that she is no longer in pain. I bet ,Charlene and my sister ,Annie Laura, who has the same birthday, had a wonderful birthday party together in heaven. I sang happy birthday to both of you yesterday. I know you both heard me and laughed.##imported-begin##Elaine Byrd##imported-end##

“ Dear Leo, Jessica, Jason & Kevin,,my heart goes out to you during this sad time. Charlene & I go back to our teenage years. I was proud to call her a friend. She always had a smile; but, most of all, she ALWAYS showed a Christ like spirit. She will be missed. The beauty she is now beholding is beyond our comprehension; yet, we have a promise that we to can join her one day. Our Heavenly Father promised us and Charlene believed Him!!##imported-begin##Wilma Gainey-Yarborough##imported-end##

“ Dear Leo & extended family. I want you to know that you have been in my thoughts and prayers since I learned of Charlene's battle with cancer. Always know that she was brave and now she has won; another soldier has gone home.

You have always been so kind and wonderful to everyone and I consider it an honor to call you "family". I will be praying for you as I know the days ahead will be the most difficult for you. Just remember, she has been made whole now and she will be one of the bright shining stars you will see when you look into the heavens at night.

If there is anything I can do to help you, I am only a phone call away. You and your family are special to us.

Love & Prayers,

“ Words can not describe the emotions I have for your family. Ms. Moore truly made my day brighter with that little smile she always had. During tough times, sad days, painful times & "just here" days. Charlenea never lost her smile. She cared so much for her family.
The last words that she said to me were next time you see me I will be healthy.
Please consider it my priviledge to have assisted in her care.##imported-begin##Sharon Autry, Case Manager, RN Agape Hospice##imported-end##

“ Jessica,

Ray and I were sincerely sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. No words can express our sympathy and uplifting thoughts that will console you in the days to come. Take comfort in knowing she is rejoicing in heaven right now and no longer feeling any of the pain she endured for so long while she was sick. You will one day see her again...until then, be strong and faithful! Kind thoughts and prayers will carry you through the dark hours of the days to come and the light will soon shine!!
