“ Thinking of your family at this time. My family and I, stayed with Uncle Raymond and Aunt Jackie some years ago. I didn't know Chuck, but I think of the Tyners a lot and research the family Tree. My father Lawrence was Raymond's half brother. I lost my father at age 40, when I was 5 years olds. Susan, it's very sad to hear you lost a husband, and your children's loss of a father. Aunt Jackie, very sad to hear you lost your son and Todd and Angie lost a brother. I know everyone will miss him. Always, think of the memories. Prayng for you all. Laurencene Dill (Tyner)

“ Susan, What a beautiful home going celebration service yesterday for Chuck! He was a wonderful person and a good friend that I always had the greatest respect for. On behalf of Embrace Hospice and the Howard Family, I would like to express a heartfelt sorrow for your loss. In the book of John chapter 14, verse 2 reminds us that In my Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? This earth is not our home and we are only passing through this land, so hold on to the promise. My prayer is that God continue to hold you close as you tunnel through this storm and press on.

“ My heart is breaking at the loss of Chuck. He was so much like a brother to me and Billy as well as being loved by our children. Will never forget the trips to the beach our family took with Jackie, Raymond and Chuck in his single days. Susan, please take comfort in the fact that Chuck was such a good man, a wonderful husband and friend and that he loved you and the girls so much. Know that he is with Raymond now. Jackie, we've always loved your family as though you were part of ours.

“ *Dear Tyner family, Frank and I only knew Chuck as a result of being members of Fox Creek. I can, however, tell you that he was a busy man! Never has the course been in such great condition and that was mainly due to his knowledge and hard work. He moved quickly, but always had a smile and took time to speak, even if just in passing. I know your hearts are breaking now, as are ours. There won't be another one like him and we are blessed to have known him. Our prayers are that the memories will bring smiles and not tears, as we know God is more than able to heal our brokenness. May you feel our love and His presence, now and always.
