“ Dear Jerry,
We are sorry to hear of Charles' passing. While we never got around to our anticipated visit, we were thinking of and praying for you both.
We know you took really great care of him, and time seems so short with our loved ones, doesn't it? May God's sweet peace prevail at this time. Just as you comforted me with prayer in that Sunday School class over 10 years ago by kneeling in front of me, placing my hands in yours for prayer, may the faithfulness of others' console you in your loss. God bless you. I am tearing up now. Dicky sends his blessings and consolation. We do love you, and are sorry we did not get by to visit you and Charles when it counted.##imported-begin##Gladys and Dicky Premo##imported-end##
