“ I'm sorry to hear of Lee's Passing. I haven't seen him since he was about 3 years old when I lived with the family for a year. The last time I saw his dad was at Uncle Jesse's (Jordan) Funeral. May God comfort you throughout the difficult time.##imported-begin##david jordan (distant cousin)##imported-end##

“ I didn't get to know Lee very well. I only saw him when he would come with Kathy to spend time during the holidays at our house. But I am sincerely sorry and saddened about your loss. I pray that your family will soon be able to find a sense of peace that only comes from God.

“ Josh, Jeremy and all the family:
My thoughts and prayers are with you today although I cannot be there in person. I will always remember Lee's sense of humor and smile. Remember that your Mom lost Uncle Henry at a very young age and knows what it is like to lose your father. Lean on each other and remember the happy times and the love you all shared. I remember when we all (the Skinner Family) got together at my house in Hartsville on Meadow Lane that Christmas Season. Josh and Jeremy, you gus were young boys and my Caroline had such fun playing with you two and the other kids in the playroom. Now Caroline is gone too. Even though we question why, we don't see the whole picture...I believe there is a plan for each of us in this world even though it may not make sence to us. I love you all and pray that you will find peace at the end of your journey through your grief. Love,

“ To the Jordan Family- I am so sorry to hear about Lee. I grew up down the street and I look back at all the fun we all had on that street growing up. Things were so different than they are now. I have ran into him and talked to him many times. I know you will all miss Lee, and my heart goes out to all of you, especially his kids. Just remember all the memories you have and cherish them always. I will keep you in my prayers as you go through the difficult days ahead.##imported-begin##Rhonda Jones Norton##imported-end##
