“ Dear June, I know your heart is breaking...I'm so sorry. You cared for your mom without any regrets and I'm sure she knew the love you were giving...Try to think of her as being the mom you had for years without the memory loss and the pain and suffering. I know the pain you're feeling and I thank you for the talks and encouragement we shared about our mothers...Much love to you.

June I am sorry for your loss. Be-leave me I know how hard it is at a time like this. I have also lost my mother. It will get better with time but you will never recover from something like this. Time has a way to let you remember and to let go after a while. I only wish I had gone to see her more often. She was a wonderful woman. Take care and let me know if I can do anything to help at this time of need.
